FIRST PEOPLES DISABILITY CARE

GUIDED BY CULTURE | DRIVEN BY OPPORTUNITY

ABOUT Us

First Peoples Disability Care is a First Peoples owned and managed NDIS provider, dedicated to supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to live with choice, independence and cultural connection.

We understand the importance of culture, community and Country in wellbeing. Our services are designed and delivered with cultural respect, lived experience and a deep commitment to empowering First Peoples with disability.

We walk alongside our participants, their families and communities, providing person-centred supports that honour identity, strengthen connection and create opportunities for a brighter future.

FIRST PEOPLES DISABILITY CARE

GUIDED BY CULTURE | DRIVEN BY OPPORTUNITY

Our MISSION

Our mission is to empower Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with disability through culturally safe, respectful and person-centred NDIS supports that strengthen independence, choice and control.

We are committed to walking alongside participants, families and communities, creating meaningful opportunities to achieve individual goals while maintaining strong connections to culture, community and Country.

Our VISION

Our vision is for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with disability to live empowered, independent and meaningful lives, with genuine choice and control over their future.

We envision a future where culturally safe and inclusive supports strengthen connection to culture, family, community and Country, while creating opportunities for every participant to thrive.

Our VALUES

CULTURE

We honour Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures, identities, traditions and connection to Country, placing cultural safety at the heart of our supports.

RESPECT

We treat every person with dignity, kindness and respect, recognising their individual experiences, strengths, choices and identity.

EMPOWERMENT

We support participants to build confidence, independence and capacity while maintaining genuine choice and control over their lives.

CONNECTION

We strengthen connections to family, community, culture and Country, recognising the importance of belonging and meaningful relationships.
